Live the Coxon Effect through the silence of music... no words, just being in the awareness of sound as medicine for your Soul.

While you sit and meditate within the music and the Sacred geometry, your heart becomes one with your body, mind, and Soul. To enhance your experience you will sit with Robert as he channels your own personal notes... a full minute of pure divine energy opening the doors to self transformation.

The Effect is further amplified as all 44 participants become one sound, one Universe. The portals open.
